

SERVICES PROVIDED BY G.S.O./A.A.W.S.

The General Service Office (G.S.O.)

“It serves as a clearinghouse and exchange point for the wealth of A.A. experience accumulated over the years, coordinates a wide array of activities and services, and oversees the publication, all translations of, and distribution of A.A. Conference-approved literature and service materials.”

–The A.A. Service Manual, 2018 – 2020, page S81

The wide variety of services provided by your General Service Office have a primary purpose: to help support the work of carrying the message of A.A. From creating service material for committees to publishing and distributing affordable literature in over 110 languages, and from providing the professional community and general public with information about A.A. to coordinating events like Regional Forums, the World Service Meeting and the annual General Service Conference, the focus is on helping the alcoholic who still suffers.

SERVICES PROVIDED BY STAFF MEMBER ASSIGNMENTS

Twelve G.S.O. Staff Member Assignments are filled by a rotating group of professionals who are also members of the A.A. Fellowship. With the help of Staff Assistants, Staff Members provide services specific to their Staff Member Assignment, or Desk.

Collectively, Staff Members respond to over 90,000 email inquiries and over 15,000 phone calls each year. The majority of inquiries are in English, but Staff Members regularly answer inquiries in French and Spanish as well. They provide accumulated A.A. experience on a wide variety of matters including: how a home group might approach a group problem; whom a member might contact about local service opportunities; which literature resources can support an informed group conscience; and what the Fellowship is sharing with the office on a variety of current topics.

Additionally, Staff Members support local District, Area and Intergroup/Central Office Committee Chairs related to their specific assignment desk. Support is provided through correspondence and by making available materials such as committee service kits, workbooks, and periodic updates along with access to videos, service material, and other resources.

Working as secretaries to Board and Conference Committees related to their assignment desk is another way G.S.O. Staff Members serve the A.A. Fellowship.

OTHER SERVICES G.S.O. PROVIDES

Your G.S.O. welcomes visitors to the office.* Tours are offered upon request and large group visits can be arranged to include a short presentation and refreshments. We can also provide local A.A. office information to anyone looking for A.A. meetings, and group contact information for Twelfth Step purposes where no local office exists.

The services provided by G.S.O. are financed by the voluntary contributions of A.A. groups and members. G.S.O. services are regularly evaluated and updated based upon the ongoing needs of the Fellowship, improvements in technology, and available resources. Feel free to contact the office if these services and any others may be helpful to efforts for carrying A.A.'s message of recovery from alcoholism.

GRAPEVINE/LA VIÑA

Also housed at G.S.O. but operated wholly independently from A.A.W.S., Grapevine is the international journal of Alcoholics Anonymous in print, digital and audio. Often referred to as our "meeting in print," Grapevine communicates the experience, strength, and hope of its contributors and reflects a broad geographic spectrum of current A.A. experience with recovery, unity, and service. La Viña is often referred to as “our meeting in print” for Spanish-speaking members of A.A. and contains stories, interviews and articles written in Spanish, as well as some writings translated from Grapevine.

*While currently closed to visitors due to the Covid-19 pandemic, your G.S.O. looks forward to resuming its tradition of welcoming guests to the office once it is safe to do so. For further information, please call (212) 870-3400. We thank you for your patience.

Unlike G.S.O., which receives group contributions to support group services, Grapevine does not accept contributions from the Fellowship. Grapevine is supported entirely through sales of the magazine and related items. La Viña is produced by AA Grapevine, Inc. and is supported as a service to the Fellowship by the General Fund of the General Service Board.
